THE TALENT IS HIT HARD

Heavily Backed Favorites Fail to Win—Can Hardly Prosecute for Gambling.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WASHINGTON, T. C. March 30.—Davy Dunlop's Duke of Kendal put up the finest kind of fight for the handicap at Benning to-day, but Bill Curtis was too much for him and crossed first by a head.

The day was miserable, and only the regulars put in an appearance at the tracks. But the play was brisk, and the bookies had to sit up and take notice after several events. It was reported generally that an officer was on the ground and would make an arrest of one of the bookmakers for violating the law in gambling, but the blue coat did not appear. Assistant District Attorney Baker said late this afternoon that he had evidently the subject of making an effort to test the law in the case of the bookmaking at Benning, but that he had come to the conclusion that according to a decision of the Supreme Court, the law was not being broken by the character of betting being done.

Day of Good Sport.

The first event of the afternoon, five and a half furlongs, selling, provided good sport. Chieftain running neck and neck with Brush Up until within a few lengths of the wire, when he leaped ahead and finished.

Belmont uncovered another good filly in the second event, which was for furlongs, two years old, in Woodchuck, 8 to 5, who carried a heavy load. Bath Marie 3 to 5, who carried a lot of money, had to finish in a drive in order to get place from Havana.

It was in the third event that the talent got such a hard set back when Havoc, 8 to 1, came in first.
The fourth event was for maidens, and Optical, 2 to 5, proved the best of the bunch without much effort.

HOPPE MAY NOT ENTER
BIG BILLIARD TOURNEY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEW YORK, March 30.—Now that the match at 18-inch billiards between Hoppo and Slosson has been played and won by the youthful player, attention turns to the next big tournament, which commences on April 6th at the Concert Hall, Madison Square Garden.

This contest is anticipated with great eagerness by the devotees of billiards, for it will afford them the opportunity they have so long desired of seeing the playing of the most notable billiardists of the world. Not only that, but the two principals of the contest on Tuesday may be brought together again, this time to try their strength at a different style of game.

Slosson has already begun practice for the April tournament. Hoppo, on the other hand, expects to take rest for the remainder of the week, and then to start in a series of games, such as he played while getting ready for his match with Slosson.

Although Hoppo has arranged for these games when he returns, there is some doubt as to whether he will play in the coming tournament. He is entered, but there is a dispute between him and the management of the tournament in regard to some of his expense money incidental to his Paris trip, and Hoppo says unless this difficulty is satisfactorily settled, he will not agree to take part in the contest on April.

St. John Wins in Pool.
St. John won last night by the narrow margin of five balls over Walker in the third of a series of games of pool being played at the Morris pool parlors, on Broad street. St. John, a native of New York, is a very good player, and his pockets were well filled with Walker's pushing sixty-three balls from the cushion when he returns.

MORE AMERICANS
FOR OLYMPIA GAMES

Parsons, of Yale, Enters Sprints.
Races Back for Intercollegiate.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, March 30.—The Olympia Games Selection Committee has added several athletes to the team which is scheduled to sail for Athens on Tuesday next. One of the most important is C. B.
Parsons, of Yale, the intercollegiate champion half mile, and it is announced that he will start in the 400, 800 and 1,600 metre runs.

It is Parsons' intention to leave Athens the day the Olympian concludes, travel across the continent, and catch a boat which will land him here on May 18th. This would give him a chance to compete in the Yale-Harvard dual meet and allow a week's rest before the intercollegiate meet at Soldiers' Field.

Lawson Robertson, of the Irish A. C., who recently won the 200 yard A. A. U. indoor championship, will enter the sprints and standing jumps. Paul H. Pilgrim, the "handicap king," of the New York A. C., has been selected, and will devote his attention to the 400 and 800 metre.

Francis B. Connolly, a brother of J. B.
Connolly, the author, and Thomas E. Cronin, both of the Shawmut Boat Club, of Boston, will accompany the team and try for the jumps. Connolly has a record of 46 feet 8 inches for the hop, step and jump, while Cronin has cleared 46 feet, and is good for more than 22 feet in the broad jump.
